

reference resources

University of Oklahoma Libraries

The University of Oklahoma Libraries provides students and staff with access to resources covering a multitude of disciplines. Go to <http://libraries.ou.edu>, click "LORA" at the top of the screen, and browse the alphabetical e-reference materials listing to learn more.

African American Almanac

The African American Almanac provides historical and current information on African American history, society, and culture in 28 topical chapters (e.g., African American Firsts, Politics, Family & Health). It also includes a chronology, a chapter of important primary documents, directories of organizations and businesses, a bibliography of recently-published works, annotated lists of crucial court cases, a filmography, hundreds of brief biographies, and more than 650 photographs, illustrations, maps, and statistical charts located within the most appropriate text.

American National Biography Online

Access biographies of individuals from all eras who have influenced and shaped American history and culture. The portraits reflect the rich diversity of American life from pre-colonial times onwards. Full text available.

Associations Unlimited

Contains information for international and U.S. national, regional, state, and local nonprofit membership organizations in all fields, including IRS data on U.S. 501(c) nonprofit organizations.

Books in Print

Indexes In-print, out of print, and forthcoming books from over 44,000 North American publishers. Some entries contain full text book reviews.

Britannica Online

Search for information in Encyclopedia Britannica and Britannica Concise Encyclopedia as well as a multimedia database. Full text available.