What is community radio?

Community radio is a medium that gives a voice to the voiceless, serves as mouthpiece of the marginalized and is central to communication and democratic processes within societies.

Community Radio is a broadcasting system established by the efforts of a specific community, operated by the community for the purpose of the community's welfare.

Role of Community Radio at community level

Give voice to the people who normally have no access to the mass media nor have opportunity to express their views on community development;

Speeds up the process of informing the community and therefore acts as a catalyst of change;

Promote the right to communicate, assist the free flow of information and opinions, encourage creative expression and contribute to the democratic process and a pluralist society;

Provide access to training, production and distribution facilities; encourage local creative talent and foster local traditions; and provide program for the benefit, entertainment, education and development of their listeners;
