

SUBMIT YOUR POETRY!

“Poetry is a river; many voices travel in it; poem after poem moves along in the exciting crests and falls of the river waves. None is timeless; each arrives in an historical context; almost everything in the end, passes. But the desire to make a poem, and the world’s willingness to receive it—indeed the world’s need of it—these never pass.”

~Mary Oliver, A Poetry Handbook

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

DANNY WADE
1700 SW COLLEGE AVE
MORGAN 254
TOPEKA, KS 66621

785-670-1915

E-mail:

danny.wade@washburn.edu

PLEASE HELP CELEBRATE THE READING, WRITING, AND TEACHING OF POETRY BY SUBMITTING ORIGINAL POEMS OR POETRY TEACHING RESOURCES TO THE NCTE-CEE COMMISSION ON THE TEACHING OF POETRY WRITING GALLERY. IF YOUR POEMS OR RESOURCES ARE ACCEPTED, THEY WILL BE PUBLICLY VIEWED BEGINNING ON OCTOBER 20TH, 2009, THE NATIONAL DAY ON WRITING. DESCRIPTIVE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU AND YOUR SUBMISSION WILL NOT BE POSTED WITHOUT YOUR CONSENT.

TO SUBMIT YOUR POETRY, PLEASE GO TO: HTTP://GALLERYOFWRITING.ORG/GALLERIES/47637 AND CLICK “CONTRIBUTE TO THIS GALLERY.”

“Poetry goes in our daily lives. It goes in our hearts and minds and bones, in the very blood that courses through our veins and sustains the life of every cell. Everywhere we go, then, poetry goes with us.”

~ Tom Romano, Blending Genre, Altering Style