

K20
L•E•A•R•N

Authentic

LEARN*ing*

Consortium

The K20 Center for Educational and Community Renewal on the campus of the University of Oklahoma seeks certified teachers to create authentic and engaging lessons for secondary core content areas.

APPLY HERE:

<http://bit.ly/k20centerlearn>

(DEADLINE - MAY 11)

2 DAY TRAINING- ON SITE

JUNE 2 AND 3, 2016

- Accepted teachers in English language arts, math, science, and social studies will be required to attend a two day training at the K20 Center at OU.
- These days can count toward professional development hours.

CREATE LESSONS FROM HOME

- Selected participants will receive a $600 STIPEND upon completion of the two day workshop and publication of their first lesson.
- During the summer and upon completion of the two day workshop, contracted teachers will develop one to three authentic lessons for the K20 LEARN website.
- Teachers will submit lessons to Curriculum Specialists at the K20 Center. Within two weeks, teachers will receive feedback and then be required to edit/revise the lesson before it is published.
- FOR EACH ADDITIONAL LESSON REVISED, EDITED, AND PUBLISHED AS PART OF THE PEER REVIEW PROCESS, PARTICIPANTS WILL EARN A $300 STIPEND.

If you have questions,
contact aimeemyers@ou.edu.